

VIRGINIA TO PLAY EIGHTEEN GAMES

TARTS CAPTURES EXCITING RACE

Manager Maiden Announces Schedule, Which Includes Contests Away From Home.

Charlottesville, Va., December 22.—The schedule of the Virginia High School team was announced to-day by Manager W. M. Maiden, before his departure for Meadow View, Va., to spend the Christmas holidays.

The schedule provides for eighteen contests, seven of which are with teams from the District of Columbia. Two trips will be taken by the quintet leaving Charlottesville on February 7, four teams will be met—Washington and Lee, at Lynchburg; University of North Carolina, Trinity and North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical College, all at Raleigh. The latter part of February the team will journey to Washington to play return matches with George Washington, Catholic University, and Georgetown, on February 26, 27, and 28, respectively.

Among the quints to be seen for the first time are University of Kentucky, Catholic University, and Trinity of North Carolina.

The season will open three days after the Christmas recess, with a preliminary game with Jefferson School, this city. Then will follow, in rapid succession, Randolph-Macon College, George Washington, Gallaudet, University of Kentucky, Catholic University, and Georgetown.

The squad has been hard at work for the past month and is in fairly good trim. Captain Lyle Campbell expects to report daily after the Christmas recess, and it is hoped that Walton Rice will be able to return to the squad at the same time. His studies have prevented his reporting up to the present. The team should be stronger than last year's.

The schedule complete is as follows: Thursday, January 8—Jefferson School, at Charlottesville. Saturday, January 10—Randolph-Macon College, at Charlottesville.

Monday, January 12—George Washington, at Charlottesville. Saturday, January 17—Gallaudet, at Charlottesville.

Wednesday, January 22—University of Kentucky, at Charlottesville.

Saturday, January 24—Catholic University, at Charlottesville.

Saturday, January 31—Georgetown, at Charlottesville.

Saturday, February 7—Washington and Lee, at Lynchburg.

Monday, February 9—University of North Carolina, at Raleigh, N. C.

Tuesday, February 10—Trinity, at Raleigh.

Wednesday, February 11—A. & M. of North Carolina (pending).

Saturday, February 14—Open.

Tuesday, February 17—Wake Forest, at Charlottesville.

Friday, February 20—V. M. I., at Staunton.
